SALINA—a Schok 35, an Off-Shore One Design built by WD Schok in 1985. Schok still builds the popular yacht [www.santanasailboats.com/boats/schok35/schok35.htm].

Salina has been structurally strengthened to take the 25+ knot winds occasionally encountered during the Philippines racing season. Fun to race but also ideal for 2-3 day island hops.

UK Tape Drive Main, Nos. 1, 2 and 3, an Asymmetric and a Symmetric Spinnaker. North Heavy Symmetric. Other sails include two practice spinnakers and delivery sails. Bruce and Danforth anchors, liferaft, lifesling, MOM, two Garmin GPSs, Nexus/ComNav instruments, Simrad tiller autopilot.
